this book approaches the issue of ideology in specialized communication in professional institutional and disciplinary settings across domains as diverse as law healthcare corporate management migration ngos etc what unites the contributors is their commitment to a discourse view of language use i e the view that organisational and professional practices are rooted in social ideological orders although a variety of perspectives on the exact nature of the relationship between ideology and discourse can be discerned in individual chapters the acts of interpretation by participants and analysts alike are invested in ideology explicitly or implicitly this manifest hidden duality surrounding ideology in discourse constitutes the main focus challenging the traditional presumption of objectivity impersonality and non involvement that has often characterized research on language for specific purposes this book demonstrates how the specialized communication setting is a critical site where ideology is intrinsically embodied in discursive practices beauty is a central concept in the italian cultural imagination throughout its history and in virtually all its manifestations it particularly permeates the domains that have governed the construction of italian identity literature and language the idea of beauty in italian literature and language assesses this long tradition in a series of essays covering a wide chronological and thematic range while crossing from historical linguistics to literary and cultural studies it offers elements for reflection on cross disciplinary approaches in the humanities and demonstrates the power of beauty as a fundamental category beyond aesthetics
