the musical instruments of east and southeast asia enjoy increasing recognition as parts of humanity s intangible cultural heritage helen rees edits a collection that offers vibrant new ways to link these objects to their materials of manufacture the surrounding environment the social networks they form and help sustain and the wider ethnic or national imagination rees organizes the essays to reflect three angles of inquiry the first section explores the characteristics and social roles of various categories of instruments including the koto and an extinct balinese wooden clapper in section two essayists focus on the life stories of individual instruments ranging from an heirloom chinese qin to end blown flutes in rural western mongolia essays in the third section examine the ethics and other issues that surround instrument collections but also show how collecting is a dynamic process that transforms an instrument s habitat and social roles original and expert this book contributes to the small but growing critical literature on fundamental british values and the prevent strategy in the british education system focusing specifically on re a subject concerned with multiculturalism difference and pluralism the book will argue that there is a tension between the aims of re and the agenda of fundamental british values the author argues that fundamental british values and the requirements of the prevent duty 2015 amount to a securitization of education which fundamentally alters the relationship between teachers and learners the book presents these developments in education policy as a radical discursive shift drawing from in depth individual and group interviews with 52 secondary teachers of religious education the book foregrounds the views of bame teachers and argues for a nuanced and inclusive approach to civic and values education
