by a striking new voice in fiction an electric coming of age novel that explores grief family sexuality and love as an ambitious young woman from washington heights tries to make it on broadway guerrero leaves the reader not just enthralled and delighted but waiting with bated breath for what she will conjure up next xochitl gonzalez author of anita de monte laughs last after her sister nena's sudden death xiomara an afro latina singer and actress born and raised in washington heights is numb with her sister gone xiomara painfully close to thirty is living in a tiny apartment with her ultra catholic puerto rican mother and having the same shitty sex with the same shitty men that she's been entertaining for years behind on rent despite two minimum wage jobs one of which involves singing show tunes while serving pancakes to tourists at ellen's stardust diner xiomara is bitingly cynical especially in her grief and barely treading water but when a once in a lifetime opportunity falls into her lap the chance to audition for manny santos the most charismatic director of the moment xiomara sees a second chance to pursue the dream she thought she'd lost meanwhile something about santi a new co worker at the print shop where she spends half of her days photocopying other performers headshots starts to tug at the threads of her apathy nothing is simple and soon xiomara finds herself interacting with the ugliest sides of the industry and the powerful men who control it sometimes the closer you are to your dreams the further away you become from yourself and as xiomara grapples with this hard truth she is forced to ask herself if she has what it takes to build a new shiny life without losing the truth of her old one with hopeful spirit and unapologetic energy my train leaves at three is a coming of age story about the balancing act between moving on and moving forward how is it that there are so many lloronas a haunting figure of mexican oral and literary traditions la llorona permeates the consciousness of her folk community from a ghost who haunts the riverbank to a murderous mother condemned to wander the earth after killing her own children in an act of revenge or grief the weeping woman has evolved within chican imaginations across centuries yet no truly comprehensive examination of her impact existed until now tracing la llorona from ancient oral tradition to her appearance in contemporary material culture there was a woman delves into the intriguing transformations of this provocative icon from la llorona s roots in legend to the revisions of her story and her exaltation as a symbol of resistance domino renee perez illuminates her many permutations as seductress hag demon or pitiful woman perez draws on more than two hundred artifacts to provide vivid representations of the ways in which these perceived identities are woven from abstract notions such as morality or nationalism and from concrete often misunderstood concepts from advertising to television and literature the result is a rich and intricate survey of a powerful figure who continues to be reconfigured sixteen year old madison michaels has never been in love and that s fine by her having an exceedingly overprotective father doesn t leave much wiggle room for boys let alone love madison s father pablo perez dutifully enforces rule 4 stay away from boys everything changes however when new student ben warren shows up in madison s english class with his good looks and kind hearted ways he captures madison s heart unfortunately madison s newfound feelings have to be kept a secret a secret from her adoptive twin sisters caro and tina her friend nina abbott who has fallen for ben too and best friends elena mercado and mari rosales especially mari who believes ben is a troublemaker from whom everyone should stay away as madison s feelings for ben grow so do her lies however lies like corks eventually float to the surface and when they do all key players are there to witness it including nina who obsessed with pride and prejudice believes that ben is her mr darcy and madison now her frenemy madison knows she can t fall in love madison knows she can t be with ben madison knows better but her heart does not
