according to don bosco school is often part of the causes of disease in the behaviour of young people especially when it doesn't help to live but tends to exclude and complicate the life of a teen after the educational model of the latest century has been extremely influenced by the researches of don bosco putting first an educational system intensely based on the intellect the great pedagogue of the xix century gave great importance to the human and christian values in this first ever book on the solfeggio tradition one of the pillars of eighteenth century music education author nicholas baragwanath illuminates how performers and composers developed their exceptional skills in improvising and inventing melodies this book explores the notions of violence care and cure within the medical encounter and seeks to foreground the ways in which whether individually or as a triad they are prone to ambiguous interpretations the chapters of this book attend to the complex interlacing of these three key terms and what to make of their entanglement by offering historical practical philosophical personal and aesthetic analyses of different medical scenes objects and concepts besides the three main concepts that give the collection its title the volume deals with bodily experience medical neglect or scepticism pain and suffering diagnosis and recovery and epistemic injustice through the lens of among others biopolitics ethics gender medicine and critical medical humanities altogether the chapters pay particular attention to the role of images and other narratives including social media platforms the case studies in this collection invite the reader to observe medical encounters that take place in and are shaped by a variety of both material and immaterial spaces from the consulting room to the antechamber of medical bureaucracy and from artistic venues to biopolitical discourses taken together this book argues that a hermeneutic of violence care and cure is inseparable from individual and collective perceptions of the medical encounter that is it is inextricable from an understanding of the tensions and consensus that surge among perceptions orchestrated by both internal subjective and external social cultural political gazes moreover the volume aims to provide both directly and indirectly a meta reflection on the disciplines that fall under the umbrella of medical and health humanities interrogating the field's potential to unearth systemic bias to open different possibilities of existence and to make visible the complexity of its research objects as well as to caution against their possible pitfalls by bringing together different methodological approaches this volume provides its readers with conceptual resources for thinking about the intersections of violence care and cure by providing a space where the voices of both emerging and established scholars mingle and respond to one another this book will be essential reading for anyone across the social sciences and humanities interested in the sociology of health and medicine the medical humanities and gender studies
