many readers know stephen king for his early works of horror from his fiction debut Carrie to his blockbuster novels The Shining, The Stand, and Misery among others while he continues to be a best-selling author king's more recent fiction has not received the kind of critical attention that his books from the 1970s and 1980s enjoyed recent novels like Duma Key and 11/22/63 have been marginalized and arguably cast aside as anomalies within the author's extensive canon in stephen king's contemporary classics reflections on the modern master of horror philip l simpson and patrick mcaleer present a collection of essays that analyze assess and critique king's post-1995 compositions purposefully side stepping studies of earlier work these essays are arranged into three main parts the first section examines five king novels published between 2009 and 2013 offering genuinely fresh scholarship on king the second part looks at the development of king s distinct brand of horror the third section departs from probing the content of king s writing and instead focuses on king s process by concentrating on king s most recent writings this collection offers provocative insights into the author s work featuring essays on Dr Sleep Duma Key The Girl Who Loved Tom Gordon Joyland Under the Dome and others as such stephen king s contemporary classics will appeal to general fans of the author s work as well as scholars of stephen king and modern literature literature and the writer was first conceived with the hope the essays would shed light on several dimensions of the authorial craft it was the hope of the editor that the selected essays would examine not only writers choice of vocabulary but also their deliberate selection of grammatical constructions and word order and their seamless weaving together of plots and imagery moreover the analyses would also draw attention to how the writing process impacts the development of characters and the formulation of thematic strands in fiction thus a wide variety of authors are deliberately selected to give the text depth writers of popular fiction as well as modern classics are included and contrasts are established between traditional writers and those who prefer to follow experimental trends modernists are set against postmodernists absurdists vs realists minority ethnicities vs majority cultures and dominant genders appear in contrast to subordinated ones clearly the major tenet of the collection is that the writing profession provides an unending dilemma that deserves to be explored in more detail as readers try to determine how authorial voices confuse while simultaneously elucidating their audience how texts are constructed by authors and yet deconstructed by the very words they choose to include how silence functions as inaudible yet audible discourse and how authorial self concept shapes not only itself but is also echoed in the fictional characters writers who appear in the texts
