the second half of the twentieth century was dominated by the unfolding drama of the cold war from the berlin blockade to the fall of the berlin wall a booming global economy has had its sinister shadow in the apparently insoluble crises that have beset much of the third world above all peace in the west has been offset by wars of unbelievable murderousness elsewhere reynolds account is both an overview of the trends underlying this spectacular and awful variety and an insight into the lives led in its midst a magisterial account of our time by a distinguished historian walter lafeber author of the clash this brilliant history vividly captures the great political events of the past 50 years while carefully avoiding an encyclopedia approach of illustrations the academic discipline of international relations strives to attain a global spirit to narrow the cognitive gaps between the west and the rest on the one hand there is the hegemonic presence of mainstream universalist eurocentric ir theories and on the other the counter hegemonic presence of particularist post colonial and de colonial non eurocentric ir theories nevertheless both theoretical traditions endorse epistemological dualism that essentially separates the theorizing subject from the theorized object thereby failing to bridge the gaps this book uses the monist schema of subject object merger in the ancient indian philosophy of advaita to inaugurate a global ir theory in the global theoretical schema of advaitic monism the apparent particularist reality is supplemented not contradicted with the hidden universalist reality the net result of which is a reconciliation of dualism with monism at the theoretical practical level the possibilities of this reconciliation have not been estimated at either level and as such this untapped intellectual strategy stands to enrich both eurocentric ir and non eurocentric ir shahi establishes advaita as an alternative epistemological methodological tool to re imagine the complex realities of contemporary international politics this fully fledged global international relations theory will appeal to students of international relations political theory administrative theory and philosophy this new edition of thomas clarke s popular international corporate governance offers a comprehensive guide to understanding corporate governance as a discipline while incorporating new case studies and material that takes account of the implications of the global financial crisis and the continuing sustainability crisis in this book the theory of binary systems is considered as a part of group theory and in particular within the framework of lie groups the novelty is the consequent treatment of topological and differentiable loops as topological and differentiable sections in lie groups the interplay of methods and tools from group theory differential geometry and topology symmetric spaces topological geometry and the theory of foliations is what gives a special flavour to the results presented in this book it is the first monograph devoted to the study of global loops so far books on differentiable loops deal with local loops only this theory can only be used partially for the theory of global loops since non associative local structures have in general no global forms the text is addressed to researchers in non associative algebra and foundations of geometry it should prove enlightening to a broad range of readers including mathematicians working in group theory the theory of lie groups in differential and topological geometry and in algebraic groups the authors have produced a text that is suitable not only for a graduate course but also for selfstudy in the subjectby interested graduate students moreover the material presented can be used for lectures and seminars in algebra topological algebra and geometry
