when in my search i came across a treasure trove of divine knowledge and spiritual realisation of a high order it was also learnt that how these sufi poets exercised a profound influence in the lives of the people and were responsible to a great extent for evolving a composite culture of the punjab they not only led the vanguard of progress in punjabi language and literature but also by the nobility of their pious feelings and rhythmic rendition inspired the people to seek the divine love the history of the punjab from the thirteenth to the eighteenth centuries has seen many storms and peaceful interludes these vicissitudes are reflected in the poetry of the sufis the sufis in the process contributed a great deal in maintaining mental equilibrium of diverse communities in troublous times in the medieval ages their friendly and tolerant utterances retained the favour of both the hindus as well as the muslims and influenced the people's thought and sent the message of peace love fellowship understanding and amity to every home and hamlet they bestowed a remarkable legacy of communal harmony for posterity i have tried to capture the essence of sufi sayings and elaborate them into this book with the hope that it may help others in understanding the great punjabi sufi poets of yore and their contribution to bringing about a spirit of solidarity amongst different communities it is not in any way an exhaustive study of the subject as the punjabi poetry was written by the sufis in persian script and to maintain authenticity and originality the verses of the sufi poets in the book have been printed in persian as also in devnagari and roman scripts for easy comprehension and wider understanding as regards the translations or transliterations as some would prefer to call them i would like to mention that it is not possible to preserve in any translation or transliteration the inherent depth beauty and charm of the original but for the benefit of those who are not so well acquainted with the punjabi language it was considered necessary that explanations in the form of translation should be given so an attempt has been made to give a sense atleast another object which has prompted me in writing this book is that after truncation of the punjab in the wake of partition of india into bharat and pakistan in 1947 and the original sources of information regrettably are fast disappearing i felt that i must explore exploit and where still possible preserve this information before it is too late to me the study of poetry of the great punjabi sufi poets has been a source of tremendous strength happiness and satisfaction in the pious full of love divine and rhythmic poetry of the sufis of the punjab i have always found gems of wisdom high intellect profound spiritualism hidden advices solace and glory of the divine beloved which brings peace and tranquility upon mind and spirit i can only
