what if we re missing something the new testament describes a vibrant church empowered by the holy spirit with supernatural gifts of manifestation service and leadership which turned the known world upside down within three generations but as the freedom of the operation of the holy spirit waned and post apostolic leaders consolidated power within hierarchical systems that missional momentum was truncated in this pivotal work dr jackson brings an apostolic hermeneutic to the scriptures and mountain of classical and contemporary sources to demonstrate that this historical declension from scriptural truths began its long reversal with the reformation culminating in the worldwide outpouring of the holy spirit in the early 20th century the restorationist impulse of the pioneers of modern pentecostalism caused them to embrace previously neglected manifestation gifts charismata but did not substantially alter their ecclesiology as they failed to fully actualize the edification gifts domata dr jackson details the function and characteristics of each edification gift or speaking leadership role within a scriptural framework of an apostolic team he warns against excesses and abuses of power and reminds each disciple maker that the character of the giver not the characteristics of the gift is the true determinant of our ability to serve faithfully this book will challenge the pastor theologian to rethink church leadership and to reengage the whole church in the kingdom expansion that characterized early christianity it will provide enrichment and clarity regarding the roles of those who portray and embody various types of edification leadership gifts the result will be a church whose missional impulse is not outsourced to designees but internalized within each member of a body that is equipped for service within local and global contexts
