In 1991 Nevada's Commission for Cultural Affairs was created to oversee the preservation of the state's historic buildings and the conversion of the best of them for use as cultural centres. Working closely with local groups and drawing on both public and private resources, this program has rehabilitated dozens of historic structures treasured by their communities for the ways they represent the development of the state and its culture. Nevada's Historic Buildings highlights 90 of these buildings, describing them in the context of the state's history and the character of the people who created and used them. Nevadans themselves had a say in which buildings were picked.

The LA Forum Reader brings together three decades of discursive writings and publications on architecture, urbanism, and Los Angeles, culled from the archives of the Los Angeles Forum for Architecture and Urban Design. Published under thematic sections—Experiments, Detours, Hunches, and Santa Anas—with interludes dedicated to art and architecture, downtown, and the long-running LA Forum newsletter, the collected essays and interviews track an uneven and lesser-known history of experimental architecture, postmodern geographies, and alternative urbanism in LA as told by the city's key designers and thinkers. Today Los Angeles is a major architectural and urban player, but for decades the city was dismissed as suburban and centerless. In republishing three decades of material on architecture and design in Los Angeles, the LA Forum Reader reclaims and reconsidered the city's architectural and discursive histories. It establishes or reestablishes a textual context for critical experimentation and urban investigation. This anthological volume includes essays, interviews, and reproductions of publications that have long been out of print, including pamphlets by Craig Hodgetts and Margaret Crawford, as well as early writings by Aaron Betsky and John Chase.
