unification of art theories uat proposed by the author considers that every artist should employ in producing an artwork ideas theories styles techniques and procedures of making art barrowed from various artists teachers schools of art movements throughout history but combined with new ones invented or adopted from any knowledge field science in special literature etc by the artist himself the artist can use a multi structure and multi space the distinction between eclecticism and unification of art theories uat is that eclecticism supposed to select among the previous schools and teachers and procedures while uat requires not only selecting but also to invent or adopt from other non artistic fields new procedures in this way uat pushes forward the art development also uat has now a larger artistic database to choose from than the 16 th century eclecticism since new movements art schools styles ideas procedures of making art have been accumulated in the main time like a guide uat database should periodically be updated changed enlarged with new invented or adopted from any field ideas styles art schools movements experimentation techniques artists it is an open increasing essay to include everything that has been done throughout history this album presents a short panorama of commented art theories together with experimental digital images using adopted techniques from various fields in order to inspire the actual artists to choose from and also to invent or adopt new procedures in producing their artworks in creative visions sociologist hannah wohl draws on more than one hundred interviews and two years of ethnographic research in the new york contemporary art market developing a sociological perspective on creativity through the analytic lens of judgment the artists she encountered range from those trying to land their first solo exhibition to those with several dozens of museum exhibitions she visited their studios and saw firsthand how they decided which works to leave unfinished or to destroy put into storage or exhibit she observed the installation of exhibitions in galleries assisted in selling artwork for a gallery and followed private collectors around art fairs and vip collector events moments of judgment whether by artists curators dealers or buyers led her to uncover that artistic practices are deeply sociological both because artists decisions are informed by their interactions with others and because artists decisions about their work affect the objects which circulate through the social world artists recognize that exhibitors and collectors prefer artists whom they deem to display a clear signature style wohl also explores judgment in art as part of the creative process evaluation she says is both a way that one judges how good a work is and how one makes decisions about producing work our understanding of creative work rests on these highly social dynamics wohl shows shedding new light on the production of cultural objects and prestige
