a veteran baptist pastor and ministry professor offers a distinctive free church vision for pastoral leadership attending to voices from the past four centuries as they speak about the practice of ministry the book contains theological reflection on current ministry issues among baptists based on biblical and historical foundations and reflects a diversity of baptist life across time and around the world including many different voices each chapter contains reflection questions to help readers consider the implications of baptist thinking reprint of the original first published in 1845 the antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books we make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage divided opinion on the topic of this book has caused controversy in baptist history and life most baptist individuals and churches have strongly opposed women deacons some baptist associations have even disfellowshipped churches that have approved women deacons and women in general have been suppressed by many recent actions of the southern baptist convention thereby affecting women deacons however thousands of baptist churches include women in their deacon bodies and find that they make invaluable contributions the book presents arguments on both sides of the topic but lands squarely in support of women deacons
