current developments in research and methods of inquiry are reflected in this new volume in the proclamation commentaries new testament witnesses for preaching series each chapter is devoted to a deutero pauline letter and introduces the reader to its historical literary and thematic characteristics the social science commentary series pioneers an alternative commentary genre providing in this volume the text of the deutero pauline letters and cultural notes on them the social science commentary on the deutero pauline letters provides essential reading scenarios on specific cultural phenomena in these letters including forgery normative conflict paideia training and household codes this volume highlights the transformation of the memory of paul in early christianity as reflecting the concerns and interest of communities after pauls death the author claims that development can be traced since we have not only letters from paul himself but also the pastoral epistles from the beginning of the second century as well as ephesians and colossians writings which are characteristic of the ambiguous period following the disappearance of the earliest authorities the seventh volume of this companion series is devoted to the writings ascribed to paul but widely thought not to be genuinely from the apostle these are of particular importance in showing how paul s authority was exploited in the early church and the topics addressed often deal with christian discipline and hierarchy hence there is a particularly strong feminist agenda to be explored here the pastoral epistles ephesians and colossians are prominent among the writings addressed in this sparkling collection and the authors include david scholer luise schottroff bonnie thurston lilian portefaix sara winter and ingrid rosa kitzberger this volume is devoted to the writings ascribed to paul but widely thought of as not genuinely pauline contributors include david scholer luise schottroff bonnie thurston lilian portefaix sara winter ingrid rosa kitzberger margaret macdonald mary ann beavis virginia ramey mollenkott elna mouton angela standhartinger and jouette bassler to develop a method for identifying paul s opponents it is first necessary to analyse procedures used by previous scholars too little attention has been paid in the past to issues of method and many procedures have been used which violate the canons of historical research in the first place limits should be set upon the use of historical reconstructions and of external sources and the determinative source for identifying the opponents of any letter must be that letter itself secondly a satisfactory method will analyse passages within the primary text according to the nature of the section e g polemical or didactic and the types of statements they contain e g explicit statements about opponents or allusions to them then each combination of context and statement type is evaluated to determine 1 how certain we can be about whether the passage refers to opponents and 2 how much distortion is likely to be present the application of the proposed method to the two letters within 2 corinthians indicates that paul faced the same group of opponents in both letters these opponents were pneumatics who demanded a particular manner of life as evidence that a person possesses the measure of the spirit which makes one an apostle everyone knows the supposed life story of paul the apostle but then again they may not as it is generally drawn from the book of acts paul had a dramatic conversion on the road to damascus undertook three missionary journeys and returned a final time to jerusalem he was arrested for creating a riot held prisoner in caesarea and upon his appeal to caesar was finally transported to rome as a prisoner dotted dashed or colored lines on countless numbers of maps document paul s three missionary journeys and his journey to rome as these are commonly discerned in the book of acts paul s letters and the book of acts itself however may tell a different story than the one customarily perceived perhaps a less familiar story but perhaps a more factual one the ministry of paul the apostle represents a significant paradigm shift for understanding paul s ministry which involves two major campaigns an ordered awareness of paul s ministry as far as illyricum a revision of paul s corinthian ministry an historical confirmation of visits to jerusalem an appropriate ordering and reaffirmation of paul s letters including romans 16 as a letter to ephesus in addition the current study offers a new paradigm for correlation between our sources of paul s letters and the book of acts with the development of an underlying source tradition behind acts the reader is thus invited to participate in a significant re evaluation of paul s ministry and a proposed solution to a long standing mystery of correlation between paul s letters and acts when one travels with paul one engages in a voyage of discovery this book makes sense of the mystery of paul s ministry which when properly understood becomes an illuminating foundational window of clarity for sorting out a bewildering multitude of theological formulations of the enigmas of paul s thought it is through a thorough awareness of the ministry of paul that one comes to appreciate the contextual nature and depth of paul s theological thought one comes to a new appreciation of paul s place in early christianity relevant even for those who live in a post modern age
