at the beginning of the 21st century headlines report how cities are going bankrupt states are running large deficits and nations are stuck in high debt and stagnation this text argues that thousands of places are in crisis and can no longer rely on national policies for protection the authors show how places in asia can become attractive products by effectively communicating their special qualities and attracting investment asia is the most populated geographical region with 50 of the world s inhabitants living there coupled that with the impressive economic growth rates in many asian countries the region provides a very attractive and lucrative market for many businesses big and small and from all industries in addition asia is also a dynamic market that significantly grows with developments in technology and digitalization for example a research by google and temasek shows that southeast asia is the world s fastest growing internet region the internet economy in southeast asia is expected to grow by 6 5 times from us 31 billion in 2015 to us 197 billion in 2025 all these make it critical for marketers whether domestic regional or global to stay in touch if not ahead in their understanding of what is happening in asia from a marketing perspective and what asia has to offer to the world one phenomenon happening in the asian market and which marketers should pay utmost attention to is the rapidly unfolding digital revolution that has fundamentally transformed not just the extent but also the nature of competition what makes it even more challenging and complicating is also how such a revolution impacts on consumer and business buying behavior disruptive technologies supported by this digital revolution have brought in new competitors and enabled existing competitors to surpass the conventional boundaries which we may be quite familiar with asian consumers have become more educated and connected and have embraced newer ways of selecting buying and using products and services in this book the father of modern marketing professor philip kotler has collaborated with two marketing experts from asia hermawan kartajaya from indonesia and hooi den huan from singapore to publish a book on marketing for competitiveness asia to the world in the age of digital consumers this book argues that marketing is no longer just vertical but has encompassed a new more horizontal paradigm in addition to many new concepts and frameworks this book includes a plethora of real world examples from various countries in asia which will help to shed light on how companies both asian and global compete in asia useful lessons can be drawn by all businesses in the world on how to win the mind heart and spirit of the asian consumer digital and non digital today s dynamic and uncertain environment has contributed to the changing nature of markets in order for companies to keep up they will need to embark on new wave marketing to ride the wave of opportunities provided by the changes in the environment such as the digital revolution this is critical all over the world but none more so than in asia asia is not only the world s biggest market but also the fastest growing it is therefore essential for marketers to understand the dynamics of asian companies and what they have to offer to the wider world this book analyzes competitive companies from 18 asian countries that have successfully practiced new wave marketing and in so doing provide invaluable lessons that others may find useful comprehensive case studies are used not only to describe how some of asia s best companies compete but also to analyze the concepts of new wave marketing their actions are based on this book is unique in its depth and breadth of cases from companies in the asean region to north east asia including mongolia and saarc the authors of this book professor philip kotler arguably the father of modern marketing hermawan kartajaya from indonesia and hooi den huan from singapore are all experts in their field and have previously produced other bestsellers this book with its focus on real life examples of competitive asian companies in the age of digitalization complements the principles and theoretical frameworks of new wave marketing that are detailed in its sister book together these books provide a comprehensive picture of the changing asian marketing landscape

360 marketing is a proprietary method of looking at brand marketing it should prove a practical and useful guide for all marketers to help them allocate their resources and combine all elements of the communication mix in an effective and cohesive manner
