new foreword by eric metaxas dietrich bonhoeffer one of the most important theologians of the twentieth century illuminates the relationship between ourselves and the teachings of jesus in this classic book on living as a christian what can the call to discipleship the adherence to the word of jesus mean today to the businessman the soldier the laborer or the government worker what did jesus mean to say to us what is his will for us today drawing on the sermon on the mount dietrich bonhoeffer answers these timeless questions by providing a seminal reading of the dichotomy between cheap grace and costly grace cheap grace bonhoeffer wrote is the grace we bestow on ourselves grace without discipleship costly grace is the gospel which must be sought again and again the girl which must be asked for the door at which a man must know it is costly because it costs a man his life and it is grace because it gives a man the only true life the cost of discipleship is a compelling statement of the demands of sacrifice and ethical consistency from a man whose life and thought were exemplary articulations of a new type of leadership inspired by the gospel and imbued with the spirit of christian humanism and a creative sense of civic duty perhaps dietrich bonhoeffer s most radical book this reading of the sermon on the mount has influenced many christians throughout the world over the last 50 years the cost of discipleship is one of the bestselling titles on the scm classics list and one of the classics of modern theology perhaps dietrich bonhoeffer s most radical book this reading of the sermon on the mount has influenced many christians throughout the world over the last 60 years with a foreword by stephen plant dean of trinity hall cambridge and one of the leading bonhoeffer scholars of our time the cost of discipleship a call to more faithful and radical obedience to christ and a severe rebuke of comfortable christianity cheap grace is preaching forgiveness without requiring repentance baptism without church discipline communion without confession  cheap grace is grace without discipleship grace without the cross grace without jesus christ living and incarnate cheap grace is the mortal enemy of our church our struggle today is for costly grace and with that sharp warning to his own church which was engaged in bitter conflict with the official nazified state church dietrich bonhoeffer began his book discipleship formerly entitled the cost of discipleship originally published in 1937 it soon became a classic exposition of what it means to follow christ in a modern world beset by a dangerous and criminal government at its center stands an interpretation of the sermon on the mount what jesus demanded of his followers and how the life of discipleship is to be continued in all ages of the post resurrection church every call of jesus is a call to death bonhoeffer wrote his own life ended in martyrdom on april 9 1945 freshly translated from the german critical edition discipleship provides a more accurate rendering of the text and extensive aids and commentary to clarify the meaning context and reception of this work and its attempt to resist the nazi ideology then infecting german christian churches please note this is a companion version not the original book sample book insights 1 cheap grace is the deadly enemy of our church it is the principle of grace as a doctrine a principle and a system it means forgiveness of sins proclaimed as a general truth and the love of god taught as the christian conception of god 2 cheap grace is the justification of sin without the justification of the repentant sinner it is the preaching of forgiveness without requiring repentance baptism without church discipline communion without confession and absolution without personal confession 3 costly grace is the incarnation of god it is costly because it calls us to follow jesus christ and it is grace because it calls us to follow jesus christ it is costly because it condemns sin and grace because it justifies the sinner 4 the church of rome was able to tolerate the monastic movement and even use it to justify the secularization of its own life monasticism was thus a living protest against the church s secularization but the church was able to limit the application of the commandments of jesus to a restricted group of specialists what is a christian at the most basic level a christian is a disciple of jesus christ and yet many christians today couldn t tell you what a disciple of jesus christ is or would even think of themselves as disciples and yet in the great commission jesus specifically called us to make disciples everything else is secondary the cost of cheap grace is an extended sweeping bold and bracing call to repentance for where we ve let secondary things subvert our commitment to discipleship and a compelling vision for discipleship as the basis of the gospel in all its world changing subversive power
