this book investigates the geopoliticisation of foreign aid in recent years against a background of global overarching crises such as climate change conflict covid 19 economic crisis energy shortages and migration foreign aid has historically been understood as assisting both with the development objectives of the recipients and with the trade and geopolitical interests of the donors in the first decades of the 21st century however this balance has been shifted by a series of complex global challenges this book argues that donors have now moved towards framing aid as a geopolitical instrument wherein aid can be given or withheld based on power or political intent thus imposing the donor s specific values and norms this book provides an in depth analysis of this weaponisation of foreign aid within a framework of global disruption and ultimately concludes that the world is at a tipping point towards a new socio political world order asking important questions about the power dynamics at play within the aid sector this book will be an important read for researchers across development studies political science international relations and global affairs

owen was a renowned theologian in his day and this work is a piece of theological brilliance in the reformed and protestant tradition the death of christ had a wide range of implications on the fate of humanity and the cause of redemption that christ came to give to us all this work goes over all the arguments that have been set up against the reality of christ s death and owen brilliantly rebukes these arguments and settles it all seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject politics region near east near orient grade 1 0 leuphana universität lüneburg course modernity and islam status of relationship it s complicated language english abstract in this paper it will be examined that islam is a stumbling block in the way of the secularization process in syria syria is chosen firstly because many scholars and writers actually claim that syria is already a secularist country which is a highly controversial and debatable claim secondly because the political islam in syria does not have the same power it has in other muslim arabic countries and this makes syria a somehow good candidate for becoming a secularist country this paper contains four main chapters and it is structured as follows after the introduction in the first chapter secularism and secularization is briefly defined and then it will explained why the religion islam and the political islam cannot be separated in the second chapter it is presented the point of view which says that islam is deep inside incompatible with secularism on the contrary side namely in the third chapter it is presented the other point of view which claims that islam can very well come along with secularism the fourth chapter will be the conclusion furthermore a connection with syria based on the content of the chapters will be made at the end of the first and the last chapter some people cant see the forest for the treesthey get so bogged down in details that they lose sight of what its all about others cant see the trees for the forestthey miss the wondrous details all around them so why not look instead at both the forest and the trees this commentary on pauls letter to the colossians guides you in doing just that even though we will be exploring ancient biblical cultures and learning plenty about the greek language no prior academic training is needed technical terms have been set aside instead with everyday language we will discover the big picture and revel in the fine details of this stunning letter amazed by how god is still speaking these same words today to contemporary personal and social challenges we will not then be tourists rapidly zipping through colossians as if on a monotonous interstate highway instead we will be hiking our way through this letter step by step phrase by phrase finding joy in gods truth and growing in our faith come and join the journey
