this book addresses the impact of intermarriage between chinese immigrants and the natives specifically the intermingling of blood and the offspring from such unions and the influence they wielded on the society and environment they chose to live in it also covers how some rose to high positions and their contributions to their societies and how some openly declared their pride in their ancestry while others have forgotten their heritage and have dissociated themselves

Hamka's great story presents Indonesia through the eyes of an impassioned popular thinker who believed that Indonesians and Muslims everywhere should embrace the thrilling promises of modern life and navigate its dangers with Islam as their compass. Hamka, Haji Abdul Malik Karim Amrullah, was born when Indonesia was still a Dutch colony and came of age as the nation itself was emerging through tumultuous periods of Japanese occupation, revolution, and early independence. He became a prominent author and controversial public figure in his lifetime. Of prodigious writing, Hamka advanced Islam as a liberating, enlightened, and hopeful body of beliefs around which the new nation could form and prosper. He embraced science, human agency, social justice, and democracy, arguing that these modern concepts comported with Islam's true teachings. Hamka unfolded this big idea, his great story, decade by decade in a vast outpouring of writing that included novels and poems and chatty newspaper columns, biographies, memoirs, and histories, and lengthy studies of theology, including a thirty-volume commentary on the Holy Qur'an. In introducing this influential figure and his ideas to a wider audience, this sweeping biography also illustrates a profound global process: how public debates about religion are shaping national societies in the postcolonial world.

This is an open access book. The 2nd International Conference on Advanced Research in Social and Economic Science (ICARSE) proudly announces its return as a beacon of intellectual dialogue and collaborative discovery. This year's conference, themed "Harnessing Social Science and Economics for Post-Pandemic Renewal: Strategies for Global Resilience and Prosperity," seeks to foster a fertile ground where academics, professionals, and industry experts can converge to dissect, discuss, and devise strategies that leverage the power of social science and economics in charting a course towards a globally resilient and prosperous future in the post-pandemic era. In this critical juncture of history, ICARSE 2023 aims to be a crucible where innovative ideas and evidence-based strategies are cultivated to address the challenges that have emerged in the wake of the global pandemic. It aspires to facilitate discourse that would bridge gaps, forge connections, and inspire solutions that resonate on a global scale, fostering a future marked by resilience and shared prosperity.

Texts about the nocturnal journey of the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) abound in the Muslim world, and outside international attention has never been afforded to any version of the text in any language of the Indonesian archipelago. One old version of the text from the area, the Malay Hikayat Mir 'Alj Nabi Muhammad, is presented here in Malay and English translation. The introductory chapters place the text in a wider context in Indonesian literatures, while the manuscript of the text (Codex Leiden 1713) is described in detail. The text and translation purport to enhance interest in this important text in the Muslim world as seen from the Malay-Indonesian perspective.
