an encyclopedic study on the role that fear and anxiety have played as the organizing motives of human existence and social life. Hankiss explains how human beings have surrounded themselves with protective symbols, myths and religious values and belief systems, ideas and scientific theories, moral and practical rules of behaviour and a wide range of everyday rituals and trivialities.

In his readings, arguments and discussion in the book Dr. Sandro Jung shows himself a knowledgeable guide to the extensive commentary on mid-eighteenth century poetry not only in English but in French and German. His readers meet many unexpected and novel ideas and judgements in a critical discourse firmly fixed on actual poems rather than convenient and conventional formulas or misleading abstractions.

In addition to disproving comments regarding the anti-feminist aspects of Yourcenar's writing, this study of her short fiction also signals the fundamental originality of the early narratives and firmly establishes them as masterpieces of French literature.
