in this book sister kubicki uses jacques berthier s taize music to explore the nature of liturgical music as ritual symbol she carries out a hermeneutical analysis of berthier s chants and examines biographical and historical data related to the creator s of taize music and the founding of the taize community the author draws on five areas of study to interpret the taize chants as ritual symbol symbol theory semiotics theologies of symbol ritual theory and performative language theory the final chapter explores potential ecclesial meanings which may be mediated in the taize liturgy and the role of berthier s chants in mediating that meaning the study concludes that it is music s symbolic property that enables it to be both ministerial and integral to the liturgy as symbolic activity music making evokes participation negotiates relationships and enables the assembly to orient themselves and to find their identity and place within their world furthermore music making provides the illocutionary force to do something in the act of singing thus it is that as part of a complexus of ritual symbols music interacts with other symbols in mediating the liturgy s meaning this book explores how states and traits of anxiety are reflected in the style and structure of certain works by three key figures of modern scandinavian literature august strindberg inger christensen karl ove knausgård on the basis of particular literary analyses it develops a literary phenomenology of anxiety as well as a hermeneutical theory of anxiety that considers the ways in which anxiety has been represented in various genres of modern scandinavian literature from the last three centuries whereas the former uncovers the ways in which anxiety is reflected in literary form and style the latter interprets the relationship between author text and reader as well as the effects of genre as strindberg s works capture the tensions between existential indeterminism and naturalistic determinism and make way for negative aesthetic pleasure poetry such as christensen s challenges scientific and psychiatric conceptions of anxiety and instigates a change in how humans conduct themselves in relation to the experience of anxiety finally knausgård s autofictive work gives voice to the socially anxious self of late modernity and incites moments of self intensification and reorganizes the fragile self of contemporary society in this way it becomes clear that literature is an outstanding archive of representations and transformations in the cultural history of anxiety literature is an aesthetic medium of expression and reflection that represents anxiety in a number of ways that may enrich our understanding of anxiety today this work thus contributes to cultural and literary scholarship that contests the subjugation of anxiety to a scientific world view and aims to expose the imaginative and creative dimensions of anxiety that are often ignored in contemporary public discourse and policy
