i steal steps that s right steps i take them away from those who arrive home late in the evening and can t wait to lie down on the armchair in the living room to get stupid in front of the tv from those who use the car for any trip especially short and maybe don t worry about parking in a double row in order to avoid the unnecessary effort of an extra meter on foot i steal from those who stay in bed all sunday to soak up a solemn hangover from those who willingly exchange the tanning lamp with a walk outdoors or who go up into the mountains just to fill their stomachs in the restaurant near the state road i wait for the right moment come up like a hawk and grab them in the blink of an eye i collect them sorted on the shelf in the cellar one on top of the other when they reach an important figure i begin preparations i find a guide study the stages plan the trip it takes at least two years to raise the necessary amount of the order of one million a long infinite wait which culminates in an outburst of irrepressible happiness the time has come the backpack is ready let s go from 2006 to 2010 i was three times a pilgrim to santiago de compostela in the north of spain the first along the camino francés the best known and most popular almost nine hundred kilometers from the pyrenees to the ocean thirty six extraordinary unforgettable days the second starting from seville and traveling along the via de la plata a thousand kilometers of desert solitude and silence a month and a half of exhausting trek the last one from oviedo the capital of asturias following in the noble footsteps of king alfonso ii the chaste through the oldest itinerary dating back to the early ninth century and named for this primitivo along the way i tried to keep track of the encounters the landscapes the sensations i was experiencing to be able to remember and relive them i wrote in the late afternoon before dinner often every other day struggling with fatigue simple phrases broken thoughts images of a moment to be re knotted upon returning these pages want to be that knot a network intertwined with the thin thread of emotions the first book tells of the pilgrimage on the camino francés along the eight hundred and seventy kilometers that separate st jean pied de port on the transalpine side of the pyrenees from fisterra the extreme strip of the west one after the other one million three hundred thousand steps enjoy the reading in this work marcus interprets a body of work that managed to transcend the decline of italian cinema s prominence within the industry during the last two decades of the 20th century this book was born from the idea of providing useful advice and suggestions to those who are about to embark on the camino de santiago for the first time i walked them all in 2006 the camino francés from st jean pied de port to fisterra in 2008 the via de la plata from seville in 2010 the jacobean holy year the camino primitivo from oviedo and the stage from fisterra to muxía in 2012 the camino del norte i put the figures in a column i try to add them three thousand kilometers exactly on foot i got some information from the internet i checked it by comparing it with my personal experience i tried to provide a complete and updated report in this book you will find a historical religious introduction on the figure of st james and the origin of the pilgrimage an overview of the routes to santiago today detailed advice on which way to choose and how far to go per day a small glossary of the most frequent terms albergue botafumeiro compostela credential donativo sello how to prepare for the way how much to train and how where to find information the most up to date websites and the best apps how to book the flight what are the average daily costs which shoes to use how to prepare the backpack what things are necessary and what are superfluous the symbols and rituals along the way in santiago and in fisterra the new ways of accessing the portico of glory after a decade of delicate restorations from time to time i inserted short passages taken from the diaries i wrote to give the sense of the pilgrimage the scent of encounters the flavor of the extraordinary emotions experienced enjoy the reading and buen camino
