the influence of kazimierz twardowski on modern philosophy in poland is all pervasive twardowski instilled in his students a passion for clarity and seriousness he taught them to regard philosophy as a collaborative effort a matter of disciplined discussion and argument and he encouraged them to train themselves thoroughly in at least one extra philosophical discipline and to work together with scientists from other fields both inside poland and internationally this led above all to collaborations with mathematicians so that the lvov school of philosophy would gradually evolve into the warsaw school of logic twardowski taught his students too to respect and to pursue serious research in the history of philosophy an aspect of the tradition of philosophy on polish territory which is illustrated in such disparate works as jan Łukasiewicz's ground breaking monograph on the law of non contradiction in aristotle and władysław tatarkiewicz's highly influential multi volume histories of philosophy and aesthetics the term polish philosophy is a misnomer for polish philosophy is philosophy per se it is part and parcel of the mainstream of world philosophy simply because it meets international standards of training rigour
