the letters of Thoreau though not less remarkable in some aspects than what he wrote carefully for publication have thus far scarcely had justice done them the selection made for a small volume in 1865 was designedly done to exhibit one phase of his character the most striking if you will but not the most native or attractive in his own home says Ellery Charming who knew him more inwardly than any other he was one of those characters who may be called household treasures always on the spot with skillful eye and hand to raise the best melons in the garden plant the orchard with choicest trees or act as extempore mechanic fond of the pets his sister s flowers or sacred tabby kittens were his favorites he would play with them by the half hour no whim or coldness no absorption of his time by public or private business deprived those to whom he belonged of his kindness and affection he did the duties that lay nearest and satisfied those in his immediate circle and whatever the impressions from the theoretical part of his writings when the matter is probed to the bottom good sense and good feeling will be detected in it
