Introverts will love this practical and moving guide to building a career network and life you love. Susan Cain author of Quiet from the marketing guru and host of the popular podcast Hiding in the Bathroom: A Breakthrough for Introverts guide that broadens the conversation sparked by Quiet and moves away from the lean in approach offering wisdom and practical tips to help readers build strong relationships and achieve their own definition of professional success. Most ambitious people believe that reaching the peaks of success means being on 24/7, tirelessly networking, deal making and keynoting conferences. This is nonsense says Morra Aarons Mele as an eminent entrepreneur with a flourishing business and a self-proclaimed introvert with lots of anxieties. Morra disagrees with the notion that there's only one successful type: the intense super social, sleep deprived mover and shaker. The person who musters endless amounts of grit hiding in the bathroom is her antidote for everyone who is fed up with feeling like they must always lean in who prefer those moments of hiding in the bathroom to constantly climbing the ladder or working the room. Morra knows what it takes to make your mark and now this entrepreneur who has boosted the online strategy of clients such as the Malala Fund, President Obama, the UN Foundation and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation shares the insights, tricks and knowledge she's learned filled with advice, exercises to help readers evaluate their own work life fit and manage anxiety, valuable tools and stories of countless successful people, entrepreneurs, academics and novices just beginning their careers. Hiding in the Bathroom empowers professionals of all ages and levels to take control and build their own versions of success. Thoughtful and practical, it is a must have handbook for building a fantastic, prosperous career and a balanced, happy life on your own terms.

Skip the line at the front door, learn to detect the hidden social media side doors that provide instant privileged access to the top influencers and decision makers in any industry. Access is one of the great unexamined issues in social media. Barriers used to be everywhere in the form of gatekeepers and rules that governed access to people with power, authority, budgets, expertise and fame. But social media side doors alternate avenues of access through social media have opened all around us and few have noticed through them we can engage with top business executives, thought leaders and tastemakers. We have the unique ability to draw the attention of people and organizations that are bombarded every day by countless competing traditional requests for consideration. In the Social Media Side Door Social Media Strategist Ian Greenleigh reveals how to walk right through the social media side doors that lie hidden in plain sight to forge valuable relationships, create business opportunities, raise your thought leader profile or land the perfect job. It will enable readers to expand their own means of access to those they wish to engage with and the ways in which this access in both directions can be leveraged to unlock a new level of ROI. Ian Greenleigh is the Senior Manager of Content and Social Strategy at Bazaarvoice. His words and ideas have been featured in Harvard Business Review, Adweek, Ragan, Seth Godin's The Domino Project and elsewhere. He writes and speaks on a wide range of topics including changing consumer brand relationships, the convergence of personal identities and the radically shifting landscapes of access and influence.
