management ethics integrity at work redefines what it means for a manager to function with integrity in the private and public sectorsùdomestically and globally it integrates the latest theoretical work in both descriptive and normative ethics and incorporates legal communication quality and organizational theories into a conceptual framework that improves managerial judgment in the handling of moral complexity at work the authors use their organizational ethics consulting and academic research experience to provide practical assessment and decision making tools that convert ethics theories into sound action steps the book examines three key dimensions of management integrity: judgment process and developmental dimensions and applies them to individual chapters devoted to the subprocesses of ethical planning, organizing, leading and controlling. The authors focus their theories and tools on 28 ethics minicases related to each management function in seven allied management application clusters: accounting, auditing, management, finance, investment management, marketing, advertising, management, business, management, business law, human resource management, technology, quality, operations, organizational behavior, management, public, nonprofit, health care, management, and international environmental public policy management. Management ethics integrity at work builds management integrity by linking and enhancing both ethics and management competence in responsible planning, organizing, leading and controlling for use by professionals and students in the private and public sectors, domestically and globally.

This essential new text is designed for courses in contemporary moral issues, applied ethics and leadership emphasizing personal choice in the study of ethics. The authors take the reader on a journey of self discovery rather than a mere academic survey of the field of ethics. A practical guide to ethics living and leading with integrity helps students develop their skills in ethical decision making and put those decisions into effective practice. Its unique focus on leadership especially the moral dimensions of understanding one's own values teaches students to understand and through dialog and negotiation communicate their own beliefs as a step to building coalitions with those who may hold different views. It is also distinctive in combining ethical theory with both multicultural ethics, Confucianism, Hinduism, Islam, feminism and a practical orientation to moral decision making and leadership.
