mehran kamrava examines current and past approaches to the study of comparative politics and proposes a new framework for analysis through a comparative examination of state and social institutions this book explores how contemporary novels reflect a profound shift in western culture from the political optimism of the post cold war era to growing fears about the future of liberal democracy analysing four major works karl ove knausgård s my struggle series zadie smith s white teeth boualem sansal s 2084 and michel houellebecq s submission it shows how these novels illuminate current social discontents and engages the anxieties of our time where the so called end of history narrative once promised a triumphant liberal democracy novelistic fiction today reflects a more ominous outlook progressives are haunted by dystopian visions of democratic decline while reactionaries fear cultural displacement and yearn for a lost golden age bridging literary analysis and political theory the book offers new perspectives on how literature engages with and challenges contemporary political narratives making it a vital resource for those interested in the intersection of politics and literature
