this comprehensive study of rome s contribution to the early history of photography traces the medium s rise from a fledgling science to a dynamic form of artistic expression that forever changed the way we perceive the eternal city the authors examine the diverse transnational group of photographers who thrived in the cosmopolitan art center of rome and the pivotal role they played in the refinement and technical development of the nascent medium in the nineteenth century the book ranges from the earliest pioneers the french daguerreotypist joseph philibert girault de prangey and the welsh calotypist calvert richard jones to the work of the roman school of photography and its successors among them james anderson and robert macpherson of britain frédéric flachéron firmin eugène le dien and gustave le gray of france and giacomo caneva adriano de bonis and pietro dovizielli of italy lavishly illustrated with 112 plates many never before published by nearly fifty practitioners this volume expands our understanding of the place of rome in early photography an exhibition of the same title to open at the bowdoin college museum of art in december 2022 accompanies this study the missionary's curse tells the story of a chinese village that has been catholic since the seventeenth century drawing direct connections between its history the globalizing church and the nation harrison recounts the popular folk tales of merchants and peasants who once adopted catholic rituals and teachings for their own purposes only to find themselves in conflict with the orthodoxy of franciscan missionaries arriving from italy the village's long religious history combined with the similarities between chinese folk religion and italian catholicism forces us to rethink the extreme violence committed in the area during the boxer uprising the author also follows nineteenth century chinese priests who campaigned against missionary control up through the founding of the official church by the communist party in the 1950s harrison's in depth study provides a rare insight into villager experiences during the socialist education movement and cultural revolution as well as the growth of christianity in china in recent years she makes the compelling argument that catholic practice in the village rather than adopting chinese forms in a gradual process of acculturation has in fact become increasingly similar to those of catholics in other parts of the world
