many changes are taking place in the public sector across europe as emphasis is being placed on the efficient use of resources the way that public organisations are managed and their relationship with clients and customers post bureaucratic structures are being introduced and a more managerialist culture is being established a new type of public servant is emerging the public manager this book consists of three theoretical chapters and nine case studies of public managers which examine these changes amongst member states of the european union the concluding chapter identifies common trends and explains similarities and differences in terms of the constitutional political cultural and economic contexts this book explores the constitutional legally binding dimension to jurisprudence in the light of the german federal constitutional court s approach to rational lawmaking over the last decades this court has been remarkably active in applying jurisprudential criteria and standards when reviewing parliamentary laws it has thus supplied observers with a unique material to analyse the lawmakers duty to legislate rationally and to assess the virtues and drawbacks of this strand of judicial control in a constitutional democracy by bringing together legislation experts and public law scholars to elaborate on jurisprudence under review this contributed volume aspires to shed light on the constitutionalisation of rational lawmaking as a controversial trend gaining ground in both national and international jurisdictions the book is divided into five parts part i frames the two key issues pervading the whole collection the intricate relationship between judicial review and democracy on the one hand and the possibility of improving and rationalizing the task of legislation under the current circumstances of politics on the other part ii provides an overview of the judicial review of rational lawmaking laying special emphasis on the duty of legislative justification imposed on lawmakers by the german constitutional court part iii is devoted to the review of the systemic rationality of legislation in particular to the requirements of legislative consistence and coherence as developed by this court contributions in part iv revolve around the judicial scrutiny of the socio empirical elements of rational lawmaking with the control of legislative facts and impacts and the problem of symbolic laws being the central topics finally part v draws on the german case law to discuss the links between rational lawmaking balancing and proportionality and the interdependence between process review and substantive review of legislation
