the pace of change in education has continued to accelerate since the 1988 education act and even experienced school governors are often bewildered about their duties and responsibilities as well as what is actually happening in primary and secondary classrooms nowadays what do school governors do how can they manage their role most effectively the school governors handbook has been the most definitive and widely read book on the subject since it was first published in 1980 written by ted wragg and john partington two of the most respected experts in the field one of its great strengths has always been its mixture of up to date authoritative information and humour in this third edition all sections of the book have been substantially revised to take account of the many changes in governors duties that have been brought about by recent legislation as governors rarely receive any specific training for their important role this book is an essential guide to the legal and practical aspects of governorship sections cover recent legislative changes in funding and school management opting out governors responsibilities including budgets staffing and drawing up whole school policies how to run effective governors meetings curriculum and assessment issues school inspections how to manage difficult situations including child abuse discipline equal opportunities and pupil exclusions this comprehensive guide book for governors specifically focuses on providing clear guidance on issues facing schools now topics covered include the home school agreement the school day the school year citizenship literacy and numeracy provision school self evaluation and the light touch inspection the book addresses issues that are new to all governors an essential book for all existing and aspiring school governors in england which tells you everything you need to know about the role across primary and secondary each of the roles within the governing body are fully outlined including teacher parent community and foundation school governors it explores the responsibilities of school governors and covers all different types of schools including multi academy trusts meetings safeguarding and governor s roles in monitoring are discussed and much more using case studies to illustrate how governors work within schools each chapter also outlines the key issues through discussion points checklists and suggested activities to use with small working groups committees or full boards with the author s own extensive experience of being a governor at both primary and secondary level the reader can be assured that they are receiving excellent advice and will be fully prepared to take up their governor role about the first edition school governors will find this a sound and practical guide to the nature of their responsibilities and the process of managing their workload it is well researched based on vast experience illustrated from the best practice free from jargon and always interesting joan sallis described by the national association of governors and managers as definitely a must for your bookshelf reviewed in the times educational supplement as an essential guide to help governors this book is about governing schools about how a governing board made up largely of ordinary people with no professional educational experience working in partnership with professional leaders can help to make schools better it is intended for governors in schools in england and wales in other parts of the world where lay people engage in school leadership and for people who work with governors improving school governance examines how school governors got to be where they are today how governing boards do their jobs how individual governors can best contribute to their schools governors accountability the nature of governors meetings the rights that governors have the relationships between governors and the headteacher the role of governing boards in school inspection governors relationships with parents and the wider community how to evaluate the performance and impact of governing boards what the future might hold for state funded schools and their governance what national strategic issues will need to be addressed by governing boards in the next five to ten years
