still friends a decade on what are the chances for a while ian lauren and paul shared the same friends the same university the same dreams and the same potential ten years on they are worlds apart call centres charity shops and bedrooms that smell like cabbage were never part of the plan the real world doesn t look quite like any of them imagined but when lauren in a moment of nostalgia cracks open a long forgotten hotmail account she comes face to face with the people these three friends used to be for two of them it will mean a new beginning to an old love story hilarious and heart breaking in real life paints a searingly honest portrait of a generation and captures a world where human connection is easier than ever before but where relationships remain just as tricky based on the author s doctoral dissertation this volume investigates the text of paul s epistle to the galatians and its history how it changed over time this wok performs a stemmatic analysis of 92 witnesses to the text of galatians using cladistic methods developed by computational biologists to construct an unoriented stemma of the textual tradition the stemma is then oriented based on the internal evidence of textual variants bachelor thesis from the year 2015 in the subject pedagogy media pedagogy grade 2 1 course ba honours applied music language english abstract investigation into the role of improvisation within the discipline of music therapy is achieved through academic research interviews with performers and music therapy clinicians and the examination of a case study of a seven year old boy with multiple impairments forms the basis of this study musical examples based upon this research are offered as working models where the application of improvisation can be applied contrasting the use of improvisation within performance and the benefits of creative music within the health care environment with the application of music therapy and its particular aims and goals is used in defining what music therapy is an investigation into the therapeutic application of music within the therapy environment and psycho dynamic principles are used to clarify music therapy's position within the health care system examples of how improvisation can be applied are offered detailing how improvisation can be used to develop an atmosphere of trust and exploration leading to and developing an interpersonal relationship between client and clinician investigating these clearly shows that the needs of the client are central to this relationship music therapy is the analytically informed and evidence based use of music within the therapeutic environment to produce clinical goals and clinical aims that are centered on the needs of the client this investigative research fully supports this premise
