published twenty years ago the original preschool in three cultures was a landmark in the study of education a profoundly enlightening exploration of the different ways preschoolers are taught in china japan and the united states here lead author joseph tobin along with new collaborators yeh hsueh and mayumi karasawa revisits his original research to discover how two decades of globalization and sweeping social transformation have affected the way these three cultures educate and care for their youngest pupils putting their subjects responses into historical perspective tobin hsueh and karasawa analyze the pressures put on schools to evolve and to stay the same discuss how the teachers adapt to these demands and examine the patterns and processes of continuity and change in each country featuring nearly one hundred stills from the videotapes preschool in three cultures revisited artfully and insightfully illustrates the surprising illuminating and at times entertaining experiences of four year olds and their teachers on both sides of the pacific
