this publication and the exhibition it accompanied draw on the national library of australia s collection to reveal how as a nation we have dealt with the physical distances that separate us and which characterise our continent the exhibition of bridging the distance was on display at the national library of australia from 6 march to 15 june 2008

reprint of the original first published in 1882 the antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books we make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage this anthology gathers 368 poems by 80 british women poets of the long eighteenth century few of these poems have been reprinted since originally published and all are crucial to understanding fully the literary history of women writers paula r backscheider and catherine e ingrassia demonstrate the enormous diversity of poetry produced during this time by organizing the poems in three broad and deliberately overlapping categories by genre establishing that women wrote in all of the forms that men did with equal mastery and creativity by theme offering a revisionary look at the range of topics these writers addressed including war ecology friendship religion and the stages of life and by the poems more specific focus on the women s experiences as writers backscheider and ingrassia have selected poems that represent the best work of skilled poets creating a wonderful mix of canonical and little known pieces they include the complete texts of longer poems that are abridged or omitted in other collections their substantial part introductions textual notes bibliographical information and biographical sketches situate the poets and their writings within the cultural and political milieu in which they appeared to generate further scholarship on this subject this essential anthology puts primary texts in front of students scholars and general readers it fills the persistent need to document women s poetic expression during the long eighteenth century and to rewrite the literary history of the period a history from which women have largely been excluded every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation

the extraordinary life of australia s first international racehorse from creating new records in australia to his life in california where he won the hollywood gold cup in wartime sydney a small and weedy racehorse kicked his way through the top tier of australian racing he was shannon one of the fastest horses the nation had ever seen between 1943 and 1947

shannon broke record after record with his garrulous jockey darby munro when they sensationally lost the epsom handicap by six inches they forever were stamped by the race they didn't win sold in august 1947 for the highest price ever paid at auction for an australian thoroughbred shannon ended up in america through headline snatching pedigree flaws acclimatization and countless hardships he blitzed across the ritzy glitzy racetracks of 1948 california smashing track records world records and records set by seabiscuit the australian bolted into world fame with speed and courage that defied all odds long before black caviar so you think and takeover target shannon was australia's first international racehorse starring hall of fame trainers and jockeys hollywood lawyers and legends bernborough and citation this is his tremendous story
