a new york times notable book a psychologist s gripping and thought provoking look at how and why our brains sometimes fail us steven pinker author of how the mind works in this intriguing study harvard psychologist daniel l schacter explores the memory miscues that occur in everyday life placing them into seven categories absent mindedness transience blocking misattribution suggestibility bias and persistence illustrating these concepts with vivid examples case studies literary excerpts experimental evidence and accounts of highly visible news events such as the o j simpson verdict bill clinton s grand jury testimony and the search for the oklahoma city bomber he also delves into striking new scientific research giving us a glimpse of the fascinating neurology of memory and offering insight into common malfunctions of the mind usa today though memory failure can amount to little more than a mild annoyance the consequences of misattribution in eyewitness testimony can be devastating as can the consequences of suggestibility among pre school children and among adults with false memory syndrome drawing upon recent neuroimaging research that allows a glimpse of the brain as it learns and remembers schacter guides his readers on a fascinating journey of the human mind library journal clear
