This anthology of drama, essays, fiction and poetry presents a thoughtful classroom-tested selection of the best literature for learning about the long civil rights movement. Unique in its focus on creative writing, the volume also ranges beyond a familiar 1954-68 chronology to include works from the 1890s to the present. The civil rights movement was a complex ongoing process of defining national values such as freedom, justice and equality in ways that historical documents cannot. These collected writings show how Americans negotiated this process politically, philosophically, emotionally, spiritually and creatively. Gathered here are works by some of the most influential writers to engage issues of race and social justice in America, including James Baldwin, Flannery O'Connor, Amiri Baraka and Nikki Giovanni. The volume begins with works from the post-reconstruction period when racial segregation became legally sanctioned and institutionalized. This section, titled The Rise of Jim Crow, spans the period from Frances E.W. Harper's Iola Leroy to Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man. In the second section, The Fall of Jim Crow, Martin Luther King Jr.'s letter from Birmingham Jail and a chapter from the autobiography of Malcolm X appear alongside poems by Robert Hayden, June Jordan and others who responded to these key figures and to the events of the time. Reflections and continuing struggles. The last section includes works by such current authors as Rita Dove, Anthony Grooms and Patricia J. Williams. These diverse perspectives on the struggle for civil rights can promote the kinds of conversations that we as a nation still need to initiate.
