by making friends with signs lennard davis argues we are weakening the bond that anchors us to the social world the world of action and binding ourselves to the ideological for the reader this power of the novel needs to be resisted but there is a double resistance at work the novel is also a defensive structure positioning us against alienation and loneliness the dehumanising symptoms of modern life while discussions surrounding ideology in novels traditionally concentrate on thematics in this study first published in 1987 davis approaches the subject through such structural features as location character dialogue and plot drawing on a wide range of novels from the seventeenth century to the present day and on psychoanalysis as well as philosophy resisting novels explores how fiction works subliminally to resist change and to detach the reader from the world of lived experience this controversial critique will engage students and academics with a particular interest in literary theory enterobacteriaceae are spread worldwide and the diseases they cause may be fatal especially in immunocompromised patients moreover the high prevalence of esbl producing salmonella and shigella species diseases worldwide suggests major underlying safety issues according to the world health organization who 2015 approximately 220 million children contract diarrhoeal diseases every year and 96 000 die as a result the increase in single or multi drug resistant foodborne bacterial pathogens is of major public health concern moreover resistance to antimicrobials was found among salmonella spp and campylobacter spp from animals and food and since fluoroquinolones became licensed for use in animal foods especially for poultry the rate of fluoroquinolone resistant salmonella spp and campylobacter spp in animals and human food and then in human infections rapidly increased to that purpose the findings of the conducted studies in the book chapters 1 highlight surveillance studies reporting the occurrence and distribution of resistance to antimicrobial agents namely to third generation cephalosporins carbapenems and fluoroquinolones 2 describe the mechanisms of transmission of resistance determinants from animals food products and clinical specimens that allow implementation of appropriate measures to control their spread and adopt appropriate therapeutic measures and 3 provide treatment options useful to medical practice thanks are due to ms kohar kissoyan fand mr sari rasheed for the preparation of the e book cover picture the author recognizes the efforts of dr elias rahal for peer editing this study presents jack london s novels as representations of a particular moment in american history situating this attention within the wider project of historical understanding there is an historical overview followed by readings of london s most important novels the study illuminates the constant tension in london s work between dominant and counterhegemonic voices arguing that it is this tension that makes his fiction such a rich resource for the cultural historian moxie meets mary h k choi in this funny whip smart ya debut about love resistance and the enduring friendships that make it all worthwhile seventeen year old olivia chang is at her fourth school in seven years her self imposed solitude is lonely but safe at plainstow high however olivia s usual plan of anonymity fails when infamous it girl mitzi clarke makes a pointed racist comment in class tired of ignoring things just to survive olivia defends herself and that is the end of her invisible life soon olivia joins forces with the nerd net a secret society that s been thwarting mitzi s reign of terror for months together they plan to unite the masses and create true change at school but in order to succeed olivia must do something even more terrifying than lead a movement trust other people she might even make true friends along the way if mitzi doesn t destroy her first a cheeky thought provoking force of a book perfect for fans of e lockhart s the disreputable history of frankie landau banks this book provides an analysis of the west indian novel in the context post structuralism the author sets up a dialogue between west indian intellectual practice as exemplified by thinkers such as george lamming c l r james and e kamau brathwaite and the discussions privileged by foucault and derrida as they examine what might be called the will to identity the work demonstrates that many west indian novels implicitly prefigured deconstructive practice as elucidated by jacques derrida in addition it observes that the powerful hegemony of imperialism as ubiquitous in the caribbean as the tropical sunshine needs to be included in any aesthetic equation which focuses on the west indian novel as such michel foucault s critique of power and epistemic violence is interwoven with derrida s analyses of a metaphysics of exclusion eschewing a chronological approach the work concludes with textual analyses which provide the reader with insight into theory as well as practice
