the east african revival is a fascinating historical example of the significant role indigenous agency can play in creating a new christian spirituality african revivalists initiated the spread of the movement employing creative practices such as public testimony and fellowship meetings to sustain the effects of conversion experiences daewon moon integrates theological and sociological analyses of conversion with interviews and personal narratives that express insiders perspectives as active agents in the multiethnic and multicultural movement african revivalists articulate through their words and changed lives what it means to be saved contemporary theology is often complex without being profound startling but not sober we need the opposite and we get it from james orr despite its age this volume provides a perennially valuable outline of a biblical theology of revelation and inspiration it was published just before the fundamentals appeared to which orr contributed which gave its name to fundamentalism while orr respectfully demurred from hodge and warfield on the question of inerrancy this volume offers a robust conservative rebuttal of modernism with clarity learning and balance as a photographer it's possible to train your mind to see inspiration in any situation and this book will show you how by introducing you into her creative process brooke shaden one of the most recognized names in modern art photography reveals techniques and exercises that you can undertake in order to be inspired by your environment everyday everywhere in addition to the exercises you'll learn how to compose plan and shoot colorful atmospheric fairy tale artistic photography so you can adapt shaden's techniques and apply them to your own photographic style indeed all artistic photographers seek to achieve their own style but it's not always easy to see how to get there this book provides the perfect balance of insight and instruction to help you find inspiration whenever you need it and capitalize on it every time the variety and depth of anglican theology is best engaged through personal encounter with its many sources the theologians and theological witnesses themselves anglican theology is often worked out in personal terms that provide a synthesis between reflection on the truths of faith and the particular contexts of culture and life this book presents modern anglican theology through a unique gallery this theological gallery includes a portrait or sketch of ten anglican writers dubose farrer stringfellow brooks kemper dekoven mccord adams polkinghorne gore and macquarrie theological description interpretation and application are included for each with the presentations differing as widely as the theologians and theological witnesses themselves drawing together understandings and experiences of faith this will be an invaluable resource for students of anglican theology and anyone who seeks to understand the distinctive perspectives and contributions of anglicanism relative to living faith and daily life this study is not concerned with biblical theology but with dogma that means that its starting point is not the bible itself and whatever statements can be found therein concerning inspiration but the teaching on inspiration as it is established in its basic traits by the magisterium of the church and explained and expanded in scholastic theology
