this book has been a long time in the making other issues have taken me away from it from time to extended time but i kept coming back to the problem of other minds it has remained a great issue it is much contested still and it is after all elose to us all i like believing that the time taken has deepened my understanding of the problem and how it is to be handled other people some by disagreeing vehemently have helped greatly i mention in particular brian ellis robert fox graeme marshali tim oakley ray pinkerton and robert young robert pargetter argued with me and kept insisting that i write this book john bigelow michael bradley keith campbell frank jackson and william lycan assisted by reading an earlier version and providing valued comments frank jackson has been specially helpful not just on this topic he can be blamed for initially causing me to take the analogical inference seriously the la trobe philosophy department has been a good place to do philosophy i am grateful to suzanne hayster sandra paul and betty pritchard for struggling at various times with various recalcitrant manuscripts most particularly i thank gai larkin she has seen the project through with considerably more than efficiency
