god has given you the perfect portion the perfect purpose and the perfect prescription god owns everything and knows everything you can be certain that you have what you need to do what he wills for you to do and how he wants it done as a good manager of god s wealth you need god s wisdom and that is more than good enough he has given you your portion the exact amount of talent money and time you need at this moment he had given you a purpose in life you are to use your portion for this purpose god gives you the prescription his plan is perfect for you and never fails the scriptures teach us to be in a relationship with god your heavenly father wants you to live a prosperous life and the bible teaches you the proper way to handle that wealth this book will explore the creation the law and the redemption if you ve ever wondered what the tithe is all about this is the book for you also you will see how to manage money by the ten commandments these are not only christian financial concepts and principles these are financial truths it s time for you to recover grow and zero in on the intersection where god s wealth meets god s wisdom the intersection series includes the titles below biblical faith meets financial strategy 2nd ed how to lay a solid foundation for prosperity god s ownership meets money management how to be a good and faithful steward divine provision meets generosity planning how to live life to the fullest while richly giving and the following companion for a deeper study setting your sights on the intersection 90 day devotional journal about the book series intersection where god's wealth meets god's wisdom imagine yourself at the shooting range aiming at a target to ensure your aim is accurate you look for a calibrated point of reference there are two engraved lines to give you a single place to focus on when aiming at a target the two lines cross at this spot and create what is known as crosshairs crosshairs are composed of two wires or lines one parallel and the other perpendicular to the horizon the area that you are focused on is where the two lines intersect the objective is to align the crosshairs with the bullseye aiming to hit the bullseye requires precision and using the simple principle of intersecting lines you can easily pinpoint that target when peering through the scope of your financial future the strategy is the same the two dimensions are god's wealth vertical and god's wisdom horizontal once you have these two crosshairs in focus and zeroed in you can aim right at the center of your target and hit it consistently if you want to pinpoint your financial destiny you need to zero in on your target not someone else's mark the simple tool needed for pinpoint accuracy is the crosshairs and one of the most critical steps is knowing where you are aiming the blessings come where the two lines meet get ready to manage money according to the word of god and live a prosperous life money greases the wheels of american politics from the local level to the white house in the 2004 presidential campaign president george w bush alone raised nearly 400 million in private and public funds nearly twenty times the combined total raised by john kennedy and richard nixon in 1960 to defeat challenger john f kerry further fueling anxiety over the power of money to dictate political results melvin urofsky one of our nation's most respected legal historians takes a fresh look at efforts to rein in campaign spending and counter efforts in the courts to preserve the status quo he offers a thoughtful and balanced overview of campaign finance reform and the legal responses to it from the progressive era through the supreme court's landmark ruling in mcconnell v fec 2003 and its impact on the 2004 election urofsky focuses especially on the 1971 federal election campaign act and 2002 mccain feingold or bipartisan campaign reform act bcra and on challenges to both in the supreme court in buckley v valeo 1976 the court upheld contribution limits but struck down expenditure caps on first amendment grounds in mcconnell it upheld the key provisions of mccain feingold in both cases however opponents argued that congressional control of campaign financing was an unconstitutional infringement of the free speech rights of campaign contributors urofsky deftly steers the reader through this contentious and complex history revealing how both congress and the courts have navigated uneasily between the scylla of potential corruption and the charybdis of suppressing political speech ironically despite the court's decision upholding mccain feingold the 2004 presidential election was the most expensive in history because as urofsky notes money is the mother's milk of politics and both candidates and donors will always find ways to keep it flowing his book provides an excellent and succinct guide to the controversies and historical debates emerging from that fact
