this volume takes a pan indian view of different professional groups and service providers mainly based in towns while persian texts provide limited information on the subject european sources in the form of travelogues letters memoirs and official reports unfold an interesting panorama on the subject here focus has been on the seventeenth century as some prominent european share holders companies established their warehouses cum residential complexes in india in this very century officials of these companies sent to india or elsewhere maintained proper records of their transactions and interaction with the state officials common people servants inside the household and outside and through their reports attracted many european freebooters also to have a firsthand experience of the east here from we get numerous details on the social life working conditions wages and other aspects of life of people who earned their livelihood through manual labour as conditions in india appeared novel to them and they meticulously recorded everything with much interest their information is corroborated with the indian sources in both types of sources persian and european artisans labourers and service providers have generally been projected as poor miserable and wretched who faced exploitation at all levels still their contribution to the economy and society was imperative aspects of life of such people deserve a detailed discussion as this volume amply proves please note taylor francis does not sell or distribute the hardback in india pakistan nepal bhutan bangladesh and sri lanka

5 volume set provides a comprehensive look at the current state of the environment and what needs to be done to repair the damage and move toward a sustainable society english language was transplanted in india by the british rulers who ruled country more than 150 years people believed that english is a language of britishers and hence it must go with them but to learn english language does not mean that people would evolve a slave mentality in the present scenario english language with its great literary heritage is no longer a language of particular country or a race it has become global lingua franca it is a medium of an international mutual contact among the natives of all over the world it has thrown open a vast panorama of world wide scientific literary cultural and political world of knowledge including an international directory of museum permanent collection catalogs
