McFarland companions to young adult literature American novelist Gary Paulsen is best known for his young adult fiction including bestsellers Nightjohn, Soldier's Heart, and Woods Runner. From his trenchant prose in The Rifle and The Foxman to the witty escapades of Harris and Me and Zero to Sixty, Paulsen crafts stories with impressive range. The tender scenes in The Quilt and A Christmas Sonata speak to his empathy for children with characters who endure the same hardships that marred his own early life. This literary companion introduces readers to his life and work. A to Z entries explore themes such as alcoholism, coming of age, slavery, survival, and war. A glossary defines terms unique to his work. Appendices provide related historical references, writing art, and research topics.

I Love Writing, I absolutely love it, asserts Gary Paulsen, who since 1966 has published more than 100 books, among them nonfiction, autobiographical works for adults, and paperback series and picture books for children. Still, Paulsen's widespread critical and popular reputation rests principally on his two dozen plus novels for young adults, which include the Newbery Honor books Dogsong (1986), Hatchet (1988), and The Winter Room (1990). Presenting Gary Paulsen, the first book-length critical biography of this fascinating writer, offers readers both an overview of Paulsen's life and an analysis of his extensive body of work for young adults, drawing amply on a series of personal interviews with Paulsen. Gary M. Salvner provides readers with a vivid portrait of his subject and a lively assessment of how the writer's life and work come together. Thematically arranged chapters correlate stories with life experiences and examine the motifs, techniques, and voices Paulsen so winningly employs, covered as well are the writer's contributions to adult nonfiction and children's literature. A concluding chapter investigates the now and future of Gary Paulsen today's writing and tomorrow's plans.

Create a vision of tomorrow with your students today as they imagine being part of the crew of a shuttle mission to the International Space Station. ISS Our Resource turns your students into the scientists, engineers, astronauts, and leaders who will continue the vision for space exploration. Become an astronaut as you learn about the different jobs on a shuttle mission. Learn about telescopes and how they are used to look into space. Blast off into space with manned and unmanned spacecrafts. Plan your trip to Mars by collecting items you would need for your 2.5 year mission. Build your own rover to explore another planet. Then it's off to the moon and learning about the Apollo 11 mission. Learn about life aboard the ISS and predict how different toys would work in space. Finally, look ahead at the future of space exploration and find out if commercial travel in space is really possible. Aligned to the Next Generation State Standards and written to Bloom's Taxonomy and STEAM initiatives. Additional hands-on experiments, crossword, word search, comprehension quiz, and answer key are also included.
