in this volume the author looks at the rise of a cultivated audience whose skill involved listening rather than playing or singing in the early 17th century a major reevaluation of caravaggio from one of today s leading art historians this is a groundbreaking examination of one of the most important artists in the western tradition by one of the leading art historians and critics of the past half century in his first extended consideration of the italian baroque painter michelangelo merisi da caravaggio 1573 1610 michael fried offers a transformative account of the artist s revolutionary achievement based on the a w mellon lectures in the fine arts delivered at the national gallery of art the moment of caravaggio displays fried s unique combination of interpretive brilliance historical seriousness and theoretical sophistication providing sustained and unexpected readings of a wide range of major works from the early boy bitten by a lizard to the late martyrdom of saint ursula the result is an electrifying new perspective on a crucial episode in the history of european painting focusing on the emergence of the full blown gallery picture in rome during the last decade of the sixteenth century and the first decades of the seventeenth fried draws forth an expansive argument one that leads to a radically revisionist account of caravaggio s relation to the self portrait of the role of extreme violence in his art as epitomized by scenes of decapitation and of the deep structure of his epoch defining realism fried also gives considerable attention to the art of caravaggio s great rival annibale carracci as well as to the work of caravaggio s followers including orazio and artemisia gentileschi bartolomeo Manfredi and valentin de boulogne please note all images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size the rise of the image reveals how illustrations have come to play a primary part in books on art and architecture italian renaissance art is the main focus for this anthology of essays which analyse key episodes in the history of illustration from the sixteenth to the twentieth century the authors raise new issues about the imagery in books on the visual arts by leonardo da vinci giorgio vasari sebastiano serlio andrea palladio girolamo teti and andrea pozzo the concluding essays evaluate the roles of reproductive media including photography in victorian and twentieth century art books throughout images in books are considered as vehicles for ideas rather than as transparent passive visual forms dependent on their accompanying texts thus the rise of the image enriches our understanding of the role of prints in books on art we live in a material world our homes are filled with things from electronics to curios and hand me downs that disclose as much about us and our aspirations as they do about current trends but we are not the first the early modern period was a time of expanding consumption when objects began to play an important role in defining gender as well as social status gusto for things reconstructs the material lives of seventeenth century romans exploring new ways of thinking about the meaning of things as a historical phenomenon through creative use of account books inventories wills and other records renata ago examines early modern attitudes toward possessions asking what people did with their things why they wrote about them and how they passed objects on to their heirs while some inhabitants of rome were connoisseurs of the paintings books and curiosities that made the city famous ago shows that men and women of lesser means also filled their homes with a more modest array of goods she also discovers the genealogies of certain categories of things for instance books went from being classed as luxury goods to a category all their own and considers what that reveals about the early modern era an animated investigation into the relationship between people and the things they buy gusto for things paints an illuminating portrait of the meaning of objects in preindustrial europe following caravaggio's death in 1610 the french artist valentin de boulogne 1591 1632 emerged as one of the great champions of naturalistic painting the eminent art historian roberto longhi honored him as the most energetic and passionate of caravaggio's naturalist followers in rome valentin who loved the tavern as much as the painter's palette fell in with a rowdy confederation of artists but eventually received commissions from some of the city's most prominent patrons it was in this artistically rich but violent metropolis that valentin created such masterworks as a major altarpiece in saint peter's basilica and superb renderings of biblical and secular subjects until his tragic death at the age of forty one cut short his ascendant career with discussions of nearly fifty works representing practically all of his painted oeuvre valentin de boulogne beyond caravaggio explores both the artist's superlative depictions of daily life and the tumultuous context in which they were produced essays by a team of international scholars consider his key attributions to european painting his devotion to everyday objects and models from life his technique of staging pictures with the immediacy of unfolding drama and his place in the pantheon of french artists an extensive chronology surveys the rare extant documents that chronicle his biography while individual entries help situate his works in the contexts of his times rich with incident and insight and beautifully illustrated in valentin's complex suggestive paintings valentin de boulogne beyond caravaggio reveals a seminal artist a practitioner of realism in the seventeenth century who prefigured the naturalistic modernism of gustave courbet and edouard manet two centuries later since 1957 when martin davies published the french school an unprecedented amount of research has been undertaken on french seventeenth century artists taking account of this humphrey wine has written afresh on the seventeenth century paintings in davies's catalogue he has also written detailed entries on all subsequent acquisitions in this field these include as well as paintings by claudel and poussin major pictures such as la hyre's allegory of grammar the le nain brothers adoration of the shepherds and le sueur's alexander and his doctor
