how does a romantic composer approach the poetry he sets as raw material to be remade a pretext for self expression a sanctified artefact or a message to be illustrated with music in my book i examine franz liszt s songs for voice and piano which remain little known to scholars artists and music lovers alike the objective is to present liszt s songs in all their complexity and diversity as well as identifying the key elements of the composer s broadly understood song writing technique both those that make him unique and those that relate him to the european tradition this approach also makes it possible to shed light on a major though previously neglected aspect of the composer s workshop namely his work with the poetic text which to liszt was just as important as the musical setting
