then i saw a new heaven and a new earth and i saw the holy city new jerusalem and i heard a loud voice from the throne saying behold the dwelling place of god is with man revelation 21 1 3 esv in this comprehensive study a new studies in biblical theology volume g k beale argues that the old testament tabernacle and temples were symbolically designed to point to the end time reality that god s presence formerly limited to the holy of holies would be extended throughout the cosmos hence john s vision in revelation 21 is best understood as picturing the new heavens and earth as the eschatological temple beale s stimulating exposition traces the theme of the tabernacle and temple across the bible s story line illuminating many texts and closely related themes along the way he shows how the significance and symbolism of the temple can be better understood in the context of ancient near eastern assumptions and offers new insights into the meaning of the temple in both old and new testaments addressing key issues in biblical theology the works comprising new studies in biblical theology are creative attempts to help christians better understand their bibles the nsbt series is edited by d a carson aiming to simultaneously instruct and to edify to interact with current scholarship and to point the way ahead

publisher description

this book gives readers a fresh understanding of the life ministry and teachings of jesus it helps to narrow the gap between the historical jesus and the christ of faith this study presents the first comprehensive survey of the abundant early islamic sources that recognize the historical jewish bond to the temple mount masjid al aqsa and jerusalem analyzing these sources in light of the views of contemporary muslim religious scholars thinkers and writers who in the context of the arab israeli conflict deny any jewish ties to the temple mount and promote the argument that no jewish temple ever stood on the temple mount the book describes how this process of denying jewish ties to the site has become the cultural rationale for unesco decisions in recent years regarding holy sites in jerusalem bethlehem and hebron which use muslim arabic terminology and overlook the jewish and christian history and sanctification of these sites denying the jewish ties to the temple mount for political purposes inadvertently undermines the legitimacy of islam s sanctification of al aqsa and the dome of the rock as well as the credibility of the most important sources in arabic which constitute the classics of islam and provide the foundation for its culture and identity identifying and presenting the jewish sources in the bible babylonian talmud and exegesis on which these islamic traditions are based this volume is a key resource for readers interested in islam judaism religion and political science and history in the middle east
