alisson i learned dante's rules the hard way don't lie don't test him in front of his men don't forget who holds the keys but i also learned his weaknesses he watches me like i'm a threat and a craving at the same time he says i'm protected what he means is i'm locked down under his name his guards his city the violence around him is real the blood isn't a rumor one wrong move and people disappear and when the enemies who hate dante decide i'm the best way to hurt him i find out how ugly his love can get because dante doesn't negotiate for what he wants he takes it back dante they grabbed her to make me bend they think i'm a businessman who plays nice when the stakes go up i'm not i'm the man other men pay to solve problems quietly and when they touch what's mine i stop being quiet i'll tear through crews safehouses and anyone who stands between me and alisson i'll make examples so brutal the city remembers them for years she thinks she's a bargaining chip she's not she's the line and anyone who crosses it finds out what happens when i decide there's no mercy left this is the second book in the what survives the fire series reading order slow burn open flame total burn alisson my brother's debt wasn't supposed to have my name on it his debt put me in the wrong room with the right monster dante castellan doesn't ask he decides one signature and i'm living under his name his rules his security cameras he says i'm collateral until the balance is paid i say i m not anyone s payment he likes that i fight he likes backing me into corners then acting like it s my choice when my pulse jumps he s all control cold eyes expensive suits and men with guns who call him sir and the worst part is how fast my fear turns into heat when he gets close in his world you don t run you don t scream you don t get saved you either break or you learn how to survive next to the devil who owns the city dante her brother borrowed from the wrong people i bought the debt and i collected the only thing that mattered alisson cross she s stubborn mouthy brave in a way that makes men do stupid things i don t reward disobedience i correct it i keep her where i can see her touch her and remind her what happens when someone tries to take what s mine she thinks this is about money it s not it s about power it s about sending a message and it s about the fact that once i claimed her i stopped wanting to let her go in my world loyalty is bought and betrayal is buried if alisson stays she lives if she runs i find her if someone touches her i start a war this is the first book in the what survives the fire series reading order slow burn open flame total burn alisson dante s world finally drags me out of the penthouse and into the parts of the city he normally keeps hidden meetings backroom deals guns on the table loyalty that costs blood people look at me like i m either his weakness or his prize some of them want to use me some of them want me gone i m done being moved around like property if i m staying at dante s side then i m not just taking his protection i m taking his lessons i m learning his enemies i m learning how his family works and if he thinks he s the only one who can play dirty he s about to learn what i m willing to do to survive him and everyone coming for us dante she was supposed to be collateral then she became my habit then she became my problem now she s the reason i m willing to spill blood in broad daylight the war is here crews are choosing sides somebody wants my throne and they think alisson is the door in they re wrong if she s with me she s under my name and under my protection that means i ll kill for her and i ll ruin anyone who tries to bargain with her life and if alisson wants to stand beside me instead of behind me fine but she needs to understand the price in my world love isn t soft it s possession it s loyalty it s blood this is the third book in the what survives the fire series reading order slow burn open flame total burn
