as china studies has grown as a discipline it has also tended to be dominated by the major international powers particularly china itself and the usa it is important to remember however that there is a rich and diverse history of china studies elsewhere especially in southeast asia the philippines is one such country china studies experts from the philippines encompass a broad spectrum of individuals including activists and social workers as well as university experts think tank analysts diplomats and journalists and thus contribute a valuable new perspective this book seeks to therefore provide a deeper understanding of the philippine approach to china revealing the unique and complex connections between china studies ethnic studies and policy studies it highlights that the philippines as an epistemological site complicates china as a category and sinology as an academic agenda thus the community can embrace nuances in research as well as in life to enable reconsideration and reconciliation of binaries furthermore demonstrating how scholarship is a practice of life and not merely a neutral process of observation and presentation it challenges sinologists elsewhere to see that understanding sinologists is key to comprehending both their scholarship and china itself as such this book will be useful to students and scholars of southeast asian studies and chinese studies as well as anthropology and sociology more generally lino Brocka 1939 1991 was one of asia and the global south s most celebrated filmmakers a versatile talent he was at once a bankable director of genre movies an internationally acclaimed auteur of social films a pioneer of queer cinema and an outspoken critic of ferdinand marcos s autocratic regime jos® b capino examines the figuration of politics in the filipino director s movies illuminating their historical contexts allegorical tropes and social critiques combining eye opening archival research with fresh interpretations of over fifteen of brocka s major and minor works martial law melodrama does more than reveal the breadth of his political vision it also offers a timely lesson about popular cinema s vital role in the struggle for democracy provides vivid accounts of commercial and leisure spaces that captivated the public imagination in the past but have since been destroyed forgotten or refurbished monsoon marketplace uncovers the entangled vernacular cultures of capitalist modernity mass consumption and media spectatorship in two understudied postcolonial asian cities across three crucial historical moments juxtaposing manila and singapore it analyzes print and audiovisual representations of popular commercial and leisure spaces during the colonial occupation in the 1930s national development in the 1960s and neoliberal globalization in the 2000s engaging with the work of creators including nick joaquin kevin kwan and p ramlee it discusses figures of female shoppers in 1930s manila languid expatriates in 1930s singapore street hawkers in 1960s singapore youthful activists in 1960s manila call center agents in 2000s manila and super rich investors in 2000s singapore looking at the historical transformation of calle escolta avenida rizal raffles place and orchard road it focuses on crystal arcade the manila carnival the great world and new world amusement parks and change alley all of which had once captivated the public imagination but have since vanished from the cityscape instead of treating capitalism media and modernity as overarching systems or processes the book examines how their configurations and experiences are contingent variable pluralistic and archipelagic diverging from critical theories and cultural studies that see consumerism and spectatorship as sources of alienation docility and fantasy it explores how they create new possibilities for agency collectivity and resistance
