a change is coming 4 schools to learn about cooperation in face of climate dynamics as part of this project where by the 15 educator s editions and growing representing the most effected populations of climate dynamic effects we tell a series of stories about threatened endangered species and how they seek new homes in the face of the change a change is coming is a story series about adaptation so we are asking schools around our world to participate in this campaign by reviewing and editing the native language courtesy of google translate editions from the upcoming five x five storybooks due 22 dec 22 april 2022 we will release the language skills editions suitable for bicultural learning for 6 to 9 year old classes in the hope that native language teachers can work with the google translate editions and review them to be revised and added to our growing library with 70 language editions of narrated stories about adapting to climate change
