nick craig s ground breaking helming to win was published 10 years ago to great reviews many sailing books can be recycles of familiar themes and ideas not this one this is a highly personal and radical fresh view of the subject area in the following decade since it was published nick has won 10 world 3 european and 20 national championships that s winning more championships than most of us have attended over this period as an amateur sailor with a senior full time job nick knows how to make the most of his time on the water every race is recorded in his notes every race builds on his knowledge this new edition of helming to win utilises what he has learnt from those 33 championship wins and many other less successful events with new learning new anecdotes new photos and additional captions on the photo sequences to ensure the key learnings are easy to take on this updated breakthrough book will help you make the transition from weekend racer to national champion just as nick has done covering everything from where to look and getting in the groove to mental approaches and championship sailing you will be working your way up the leaderboard in no time packed full of intelligent insight brilliant top tips and engaging photo sequences if your goal is to win then this is the book for you for most sailors boat tuning may seem a mystery understood only by sailmakers and the like in this book sailor chandler and championship winner ian pinnell unravels this daunting subject and will help improve your boatspeed as a result since most races are won or lost by a difference of less than 2 of racing time you will soon be moving up the fleet with hundreds of photos and diagrams to illustrate every point the book clearly explains what each control does and how to set it up optimally for different conditions additional troubleshooting and skills sections take things even further making this the bible of dinghy tuning sailing smart is for every sailor who wants to increase his or her knowledge understanding and sailing expertise the local day sailor who wants a firmer grasp of the fundamentals as well as the serious competitor who wants to be up on the latest most innovative sailing techniques and racing strategies buddy melges one of the world s best known sailors has at last set down his highly original thoughts on how to sail well he covers the full range of sailing experience from the general to the specific the basic to the highly sophisticated melges s message is delivered in a bright uncluttered manner by way of applications from his own sailing experience and through step by step instructions on everything from basic boat handling to expert on the course tactics and maneuvers this book is expertly illustrated by the noted sailing artist ted brennan and each drawing is accompanied by a cogent in depth explanatory caption the new york times bestselling series continues with this pun tastic epic quest and far flung fantasy adventure lydell a shy naive man of twenty one and world weary grandmother grania could not be more different but when their paths cross on the way to beseech the good magician to add some excitement to their extraordinarily dull lives the one thing they have in common is about to get them more than they bargained for lydell and grania s exceptional integrity makes them valuable to the good magician he promises to fulfill their hearts desires on the condition they pilot a fireboat to its new proprietors whoever and wherever they may be along with an obnoxious bird and a robot dogfish as shipmates they unfurl their sail of flame and cruise through the skies of xanth guided by cryptic clues picking up a crew of future children along the way lydell and grania must plan a royal wedding detonate an f bomb evade illusion dragons rescue jack and jill find a princess for a werewolf prince and face their greatest fears all while remaining true to their compulsively honest selves fire sail is the 42nd book in the xanth series but you may enjoy reading the series in any order olympic gold medallist and multiple world champion paul goodison explains why this book is important if you want to win races he says to win sailboat races you need to sail the boat fast this comes down to hours on the water training and tuning there are few shortcuts to hours of practising on the water to consistently win races you need to sail fast and smart making the right decisions to sail the best course if you are not the fastest boat you are still able to win races and regattas by managing risk and sailing smart this is where good tactics come in but unlike boatspeed tactics may be learnt by thinking about each leg of the course and different situations from the comfort of your own home jon emmett s new book tactics made simple is a great tool to help fast track this learning this book explains simply through hundreds of diagrams what tactics can be applied around the race track individual boats in each scenario are given names so that you can easily understand what they are doing individual chapters take you around the race course from before you get on the water through the pre start start different legs and manoeuvres each section contains detailed advice for the beginner intermediate and advanced sailor so you can just look at the level of tactics relevant to you ideal for dinghy sailors there is also a wealth of advice that will benefit yachtsmen this is a practical way to improve your racing results whether starting out moving up the club circuit or competing at national level and beyond originally published by wiley nautical as be your own tactics coach the crew of a racing boat is as important as the helmsman they work as a team to sail as fast as they can but different members of that team have different roles in the boat in addition to the obvious roles which belong to the crew trimming the jib and spinnaker and helping keep the boat upright the crew can also contribute to tactics boat tuning watching the competition and so on in this book olympic gold medallist crew saskia clark describes all that is needed to become a top rate crew or just be a better crew at whatever level you want to compete at she initially takes you through getting started as a crew and team choosing a boat and setting your goals she then turns to the specific crewing skills of hiking trapezing tacking gybing handling the spinnaker and having good boatspeed on each leg of the course the focus then turns to racing and particularly the roles of each member of the team communication decision making and execution around the race course finally she brings it all together with advice on how you can be the best crew and a great team packed with photographs this is the ultimate book for crews whether they are trying to win a championship or just wanting to sail at their local club if your helm doesn t buy it for you treat yourself this book describes the psychological strategies the world class sailors use to set goals manage stress and build confidence part 3 contains photo sequences of sailing specific exercises that can be used to build an individual training programme set goals for confidence building and competition
