the organization of firms in a global economy presents a new research program that is transforming the study of international trade driven by the availability of new micro data sets and innovative theoretical models it focuses on the level of firms products and stages of production rather than on countries and industries it addresses such questions as why only a small proportion of firms in a given industry export and why an even smaller proportion invest abroad why exporters tend to be more productive than nonexporters why almost one third of international trade takes place between units of the same firm and why as much as two thirds involves multinational firms as exporter importer or both and why international trade may have been the most important driver of organizational changes in the corporation that have been taking place in the last decade until a few years ago models of international trade did not recognize the heterogeneity of firms and exporters and could not provide good explanations of international production networks now such models exist and are explored in this volume the study looks closely at how law firms use various features of linkedin including paid ads video ads inmail invitations participation in linkedin groups and other features of the most important social networking site for lawyers the report includes hard data on the number of linkedin followers per firm and of spending on various linkedin services the study also details the policies of different firms on developing linkedin profiles frequency of updating or posts and use of linkedin visitor metrics for marketing purposes the study helps firms to answer questions such as what really works on linkedin for law firms how important is linkedin vs other sites such as google or twitter data in the report is broken out by size of law firm and by other useful variables such as the extent of firm revenues from litigation and the main audience for the firm s services individuals big business medium sized business or small business
