the volume offers a new critical reflection on the use of the bible in contemporary cultural and political debates in the nordic countries in nordic lutheran societies the bible has been perceived as a basis of religion and social cohesion whereas such religious and confessional factors are well researched vis à vis the historical genesis of the nordic welfare states the focus here is on public use of the bible in debates of today in 1993 samuel p huntington boldly asserted in the pages of foreign affairs the preeminent magazine on foreign policy and international relations that world politics was entering a new phase one in which cultural differences in religion history language and tradition were replacing cold war tensions and would soon become the world's fundamental points of conflict huntington's striking thesis elicited both criticism and praise from the media and political experts around the world more than a decade later the clash of civilizations continues to be a touchstone in global politics as writers passionately debate its merits and propose countertheories of their own this collection presents the original seminal essay followed by critical responses published in foreign affairs including the author's reply to his critics and contemporary additions to the enduring question of how to understand world conflict
