displaced memories analyzes the representation of traumatic memories political imprisonment torture survival and exile in the literary works of alicia kozameh alicia partnoy and nora strejilevich survivors of argentina s dirty war 1976 1983 beginning with an examination of the history of argentina s last dictatorship the conditions that led the authors to exile and the contexts in which the texts were published portela provides the theoretical tools for the understanding of narratives of trauma and displacement caused by political violence the author proposes a theory that critiques post structuralist paradigms of trauma which present trauma as an unclaimed experience impossible to apprehend as she argues for an analysis of the symbolic uses of language presenting trauma as a claimed experience that can be brought into representation and therefore create the conditions of possibility for working through this volume presents discourse production in multilingual contexts as a specific type of language contact situation translation may be seen as the prototypical type of multilingual discourse production other types would include parallel text production in different languages e g for websites or the production of versions more loosely connected with the source text when divergent communicative norms and conventions come into contact in any of these types of text production one may find that such conventions transcend established language boundaries potentially leading to the emergence of new genres this volume represents the first collection of papers that focus on the specific properties of language contact through multilingual discourse production it brings together approaches by historical linguists language contact researchers and translation scholars thus presenting the topic in its full variety and providing valuable suggestions for further research in this emerging field of study this collection provides an excellent introduction to three of the most important names in twentieth century spanish philosophy miguel de unamuno 1864 1936 josé ortega y gasset 1883 1955 and josé ferrater mora 1912 1991 the thought provoking work of these great contemporary philosophers offers a rich and penetrating insight into human existence originally written by ferrater mora in the middle of the last century his interpretations of unamuno and ortega are considered classics and the chapter on his own thought reflects his mature thinking about being and death each essay is introduced by noted ferrater mora scholar j m terricabras and contains updated biographical and bibliographic information esplin argues that borges through a sustained and complex literary relationship with poe s works served as the primary catalyst that changed poe s image throughout spanish america from a poet prophet to a timeless fiction writer this volume of essays constitutes a critical reappraisal of a front rank world author gabriel garcía márquez its principal objective is to reflect the breadth and variety of critical approaches to literature applied to a single corpus of writing here the major novels including love in the times of cholera 1986 and a selection of his short fiction are considered rossetti s armadillo is charles s kraszewski s attempt at fulfilling the desiderata expressed by george steiner in the introduction to his penguin book of modern verse translation an honest translation of poetry must be a verse translation and should include a commentary by the translator dealing with his critical interpretation of the original and an assessment of the difficulties encountered in the process of translation many of the thirty three verse translations included in rossetti s armadillo are appearing in print for the first time they are accompanied by the original verses he worked from as well as critical essays arranged in chronological order from sappho to isidore isou the poems in rossetti s armadillo constitute a cross section of the history of european poetry stretching from the iberian peninsula to the steppes of russia an introduction and a conclusion interject a translator s eye view of the art of poetic recreation and the humility it enforces upon those who take up the métier

there is a notion amongst some academics that latin american liberation theology has had its day a dream killed off by the nicaraguan and salvadoran revolutions the 1989 demise of socialism and the end of history claims of the champions of capitalism however in this book petrella proves this to be an ill conceived notion and shows that this theology can be reinvented to bring its preferential option for the poor into the real world the actualisation of historical projects is possible by adopting the methods developed by the brazilian champion of critical legal studies robert unger doing so will entail the rejection of these theologians unitary concepts of a despised and rejected capitalism and a canonized and accepted socialism petrella argues for a reconstruction of these concepts and those of democracy and property too he closely analyses the differences in democracy and capitalism as practised across the usa and europe in support for the reconstruction of these concepts bringing about far reaching suggestions for the future of liberation theology
