prior to making her final pledge as a druid the young seer sibeal visits the island of inis eala where the sight leads her to felix a survivor of a norse shipwreck who has no memory of his past as the island s healers struggle to keep felix alive he and sibeal form a natural bond but sibeal's vocation is her true calling and she must choose between the two things that tug at her soul her spirituality and a chance at love the fifth book in the epic and compulsively readable sevenwaters series masterful and gripping the courier mail sibeal has always known that she is destined for a spiritual life and is committed to it with all her heart the only thing left for her to do before she enters the nemetons is to spend the summer visiting her sisters muirrin and clodagh on the northern island of inis eala but sibeal has barely set foot on the island before a freak storm out at sea sinks a ship before her eyes in spite of frantic efforts only three survivors are fished alive from the water and one of them a man sibeal names ardal clings to life by the merest thread sibeal befriends ardal as he begins to regain his health but it becomes clear there is something unusual about the three shipwrecked strangers why won't the beautiful svala speak and what is it that the gravely ill ardal can't remember or won't tell when a visiting warrior is found dead at the bottom of a cliff and an attempt is made on ardal's life sibeal finds herself a pawn in a deadly game the truth will be far more astonishing than she could ever have believed and the consequences for sibeal unimaginable there are some series so lyrical so well conceived that every new book is a delight and this describes marillier's sevenwaters the weekend west winner of the tin duck award for best long written work fans of marion zimmer bradley isobelle carmody and robin hobb will love juliet marillier
