Faith, life, and learning online is an invitation for faith-based institutions to take bold steps toward integrating a holistic mission of spiritual formation into the online learning environment. For Christian higher education, faith integration is a matter of mission, not modality, regardless of whether learning happens in the traditional classroom, through hybrid models, or exclusively online. Christian universities have a missional mandate to continue their long legacy of forming students of competence and character, while traditional campuses continue to provide unique and meaningful opportunities for students to grow in their faith. Online learning has opened new avenues for engagement and development of spiritual formation, as such, all Christian higher education institutions are now called to take advantage of this unique technological moment to continue to offer transformative opportunities for the holistic integration of faith, life, and learning in the online environment.

Self-coaching is about feeling better. It really is that simple. Everything we do in our lives is because we want to feel better. When we give it, it feels good. When we help others, it feels good. When we accomplish something, it feels good. Whenever we feel bad, we are usually seeking a way to feel good. The reason we want to feel good is because it is our true nature. Alignment with our spirit, our true essence, the God within us, feels good. It feels peaceful, joyous, honest, abundant, and free. Through coaching ourselves, we can feel good much more of the time. By coaching ourselves, we find what is not working in our lives. We find that trying to change the external circumstances to change how we feel is impossible. We learn that fighting our emotions or trying to deny them only makes them bigger. We find that our thinking is the most important thing we can pay attention to in order to feel better. Now, by taking a peek into our own minds, we can find the cause of all our suffering. We can see how we block our joy with outdated and untruthful thoughts and beliefs. By just being in this place of awareness, we have aligned with our true nature and can observe the patterns of our lives. Hiring a coach can be an amazing experience. Having someone who is already outside of your mind give you a different perspective to consider is often the first step in change. But ultimately, it is the process of shifting your own perception with your own awareness that will create non-dependent freedom. This is why I feel so strongly about learning how to apply these simple self-coaching tools in your own life and on your own mind. If you are willing to do the work now, it becomes a way of being. You will step into a life that is lived with awareness and consciousness because each time you feel any negative emotion, you see it as a signal to coach yourself and realign with the true essence of you. Self-coaching 101 teaches you the basics of how to do this, and the basics are enough.
